THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMB. 27.

A REGIMENT BEHIND THE SCENES. - Augustin Daly's call for supernumeraties for Fox's new pantomime of "Humpty Dumpty Abroad," to be produced in the Grand Opera House on Monday evening, was responded to by over two thousand persons, two thirds of whom were genteel young girls. The stage door in Twentyfourth street was besieged every day of this week by a clamorous throng, and, although but two hundred were needed, and a notice of the complement being had was early posted up, yet the demand for employment did not moderate until yesterday afternoon, when the door was closed for several hours, and the waiting crowds were driven away by the cold. The fortunate ones whose names found a place on the pay roll could hardly restrain their joy, and up to the hour of rchearsal had a perfect merrymaking in the great reception room at the rear of the stage. "Humpty Dumpty Abroad," besides the two hundred supernumeraries, will give employment to thirty-two of the Grand Opera House regular company, including G. L. Fox; forty-seven first-class variety performers, such as the Jackley family, a ballet of sixty, forty children, twenty-two scene shifters, thirty carpenters, ten men in the flies, fourteen cellarmen, prompter, call boys, and other regular assistants, making a grand total of nearly five hundred. It has been preparing five months, during which seven scene painters have been in constant employment, and it is estimated that its cost before the doors are opened Mon day evening will have reached $50,000. -N. Y.

A GREAT PART OF EUROPE lives in constant peril of a deluge. The rise lately of the Neva, and the inundation of St. Petersburg, was only one type of what might happen at any time to the whole of Holland, and does occur every year in portions of France and Italy. In Holland, a leak may be sprung at any moment in the great ocean dykes of sand wattled with the roots of trees and grass. A spring tide driven by north west winds has more than once brought on serious danger, and sometimes in the darkness of the night, in spite of the vigilence which constantly guards these barriers, an attack all along the line by the wind and waves, may send the ocean boiling and roaring over the richest farms in the world, and fair cities, and dreaming country-houses. The great rivers, too are almost as dangerous as the ocean. Every year the rain-fall and the melting snows from Switzerland and Germany come pouring down upon the flats of Holland. Here the sluggish mass slowly drags itself between costly embankments to the sea. At Ratwyk, the Rhine is positively lifted out of Holland by powerful machinery. In France floods are of perpetual occurrence, and appear to have become more disastrous of late years. The Rhine and the Loire are utterly unmanageable. Of other rivers, the Elbe. and Danube, the Po, the Tagus, and even the Rhine and the Guadalquiver, are at times tremendous agents of devastation.

How to Remove Stains and Spots From Marble, Furniture, etc.

The only stain which Sapolio will not remove is a "stain upon the character." But from marble mantels, tables, china, table ware, carpets, furniture of every description, or any article of household ornament or use, the deepest dyed stain can be instantly washed out forever by the use of Sapolio. It is as cheap as ordinary bar soap, and will always do exactly what is claimed for it, if the simple directions are fol-
